(GRETCHEN, PETER, KATRINA, VEDDER, & CORO, S.S.T.B.)

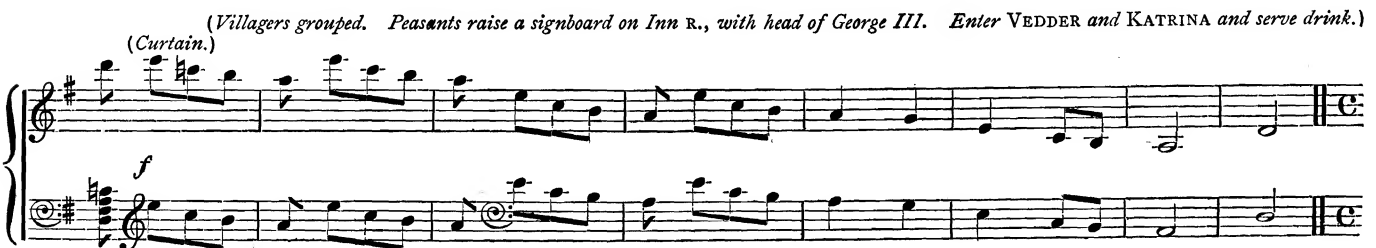

Allegretto moderato.

PIANO. p poco a poco cre - - - scen - - - do.

The piano accompaniment for the first system of 'Far and Near' is in 2/4 time, key of D major. The right hand features a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment of eighth notes. The tempo is marked 'Allegretto moderato' and the dynamics start with a piano 'p' and a 'poco a poco' crescendo.The piano accompaniment for the second system continues the melodic and harmonic patterns established in the first system, maintaining the 'poco a poco' crescendo.

(Villagers grouped. Peasants raise a signboard on Inn R., with head of George III. Enter VEDDER and KATRINA and serve drink.)
(Curtain.)

The musical score is written for piano and consists of six systems. Each system has a treble and bass staff. The key signature is D major (two sharps) and the time signature is 2/4. The first system is marked 'Allegretto.' and 'PIANO.' with a forte 'ff' dynamic. The second system continues the piece. The third system has a 'f' (forte) dynamic. The fourth system has a 'f' (piano) dynamic. The fifth system has a 'f' (piano) dynamic. The sixth system has a 'f' (piano) dynamic. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and accidentals.

ff p ff (Curtain rises.)

The first system of the musical score consists of two staves. The upper staff begins with a piano introduction marked ff, followed by a section marked p (piano), and then returns to ff. The lower staff provides harmonic support with chords and moving lines. The instruction "(Curtain rises.)" is placed at the end of the system.

p (Entrance of RIF, as if pursued.)

The second system continues the musical piece. The upper staff features a melodic line marked p (piano). The lower staff has a more active, rhythmic accompaniment. The instruction "(Entrance of RIF, as if pursued.)" is written above the upper staff.

p Moderato assai. (Dialogue.)

The third system is marked p (piano) and Moderato assai. The tempo and dynamics are indicated above the upper staff. The instruction "(Dialogue.)" is placed at the end of the system. The music shows a more conversational quality between the two staves.

The fourth system continues the piano accompaniment. The upper staff has a melodic line, and the lower staff has a rhythmic accompaniment. The music is in a key with three sharps (F#, C#, G#).

The fifth system continues the piano accompaniment. The upper staff has a melodic line, and the lower staff has a rhythmic accompaniment. The music is in a key with three sharps (F#, C#, G#).

The sixth system continues the piano accompaniment. The upper staff has a melodic line, and the lower staff has a rhythmic accompaniment. The dynamics p, pp, and ppp are indicated above the upper staff. The instruction timb. (timpani) is written below the lower staff.

The musical score for "The Rose Tree" is presented in two systems. The first system shows the beginning of the piece, starting with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The melody is written in the treble staff, and the bass line is in the bass staff. The second system continues the melody and bass line. The score is written in a style typical of 19th-century sheet music, with a clear distinction between the vocal melody and the piano accompaniment.

A musical score for the song "The Rose Tree". The score is written for piano (p) and features a treble and bass staff. The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 2/4. The melody is in the treble staff, and the accompaniment is in the bass staff. The piece consists of 16 measures. The first measure is a whole note chord (F#4, A4, C5). The second measure is a half note chord (F#4, A4, C5). The third measure is a half note chord (F#4, A4, C5). The fourth measure is a half note chord (F#4, A4, C5). No. 22. LETTER SONG—"True Love from o'er the Sea."—(Alice.)

Moderato non troppo.

PIANO.

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand plays a melody in G minor, 3/4 time, starting with a half note G4, followed by quarter notes A4, Bb4, and C5. The left hand plays a bass line with eighth notes, starting on G3 and moving up stepwise. The tempo is marked 'Moderato non troppo' and the dynamics are 'pp' (pianissimo).

I, I, dare not break the seal! What fear, what doubt I feel... I've liv'd so long with sor - row,

The first system of the song features a vocal melody in G minor, 3/4 time, and piano accompaniment. The vocal line begins with a half note G4, followed by quarter notes A4, Bb4, and C5. The piano accompaniment consists of a steady eighth-note bass line in the left hand and chords in the right hand.

I trem - ble at each mor - row! With fond doubt my heart will chill... Lives and loves he still?

The second system continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The vocal line has a half note G4, followed by quarter notes A4, Bb4, and C5. The piano accompaniment maintains the same rhythmic pattern.

piu animato.

Sad heart, thou'rt much to blame, Did he not write this name? Ah! . . . come piu animato.

The third system is marked 'piu animato' (faster). The vocal melody and piano accompaniment are more active, with the piano part featuring more complex chordal textures and faster eighth-note passages. The system concludes with the vocal line on 'Ah! . . . come'.

No. 23. HAMMOCK SONG & CHORUS—"Rock'd upon the Billow!"
(Lieutenant van Slous & Chorus.)

Moderato quasi allegretto.

PIANO.

The piano introduction is in 3/4 time, key of B-flat major. It features a melody in the right hand with eighth and sixteenth notes, and a bass line in the left hand with eighth notes. The tempo is marked 'Moderato quasi allegretto'. The piece ends with a 'ris.' (ritardando) marking.

1. Oh! proud and high the feel-ing, O'er the sai-lor steal-ing,

The first system of the song. The vocal line (treble clef) begins with a rest, then enters with the melody. The piano accompaniment (grand staff) provides harmonic support with chords and moving lines. A fermata is placed over the piano accompaniment at the end of the first phrase.

To the core, When half a gale is blow-ing, And his ship is go-ing, Fast from shore.

The second system of the song. The vocal line continues the melody. The piano accompaniment features a prominent bass line with eighth notes and chords in the right hand.

Staunch is the craft that bears him on, O'er the verge, lands lie to be won, Har-vests there are be-yond the foam, To reap for those he loves at home! Ay! har-vests lie be-yond the foam, To reap for those he loves at home!

The third system of the song. The vocal line continues the melody. The piano accompaniment features a prominent bass line with eighth notes and chords in the right hand.

The fourth system of the song. The vocal line continues the melody. The piano accompaniment features a prominent bass line with eighth notes and chords in the right hand. The system concludes with a final cadence.

The first system of the musical score is for the chorus. It features four staves: Soprano, Tenor, Bass, and Piano. The key signature is three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat) and the time signature is 2/4. The Soprano staff begins with a rest followed by a melodic line starting on the word 'Some'. The Tenor and Bass staves have whole rests. The Piano accompaniment starts with a rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes, marked 'Moderato' and 'leggeramente'. Dynamics include a forte 'f' and a piano 'p'.

The second system continues the chorus with vocal and piano parts. The vocal staves (Soprano, Tenor, Bass) have lyrics: 'vot - ing is done, The fin - ish will be ex - cit - ing, So we run here to see the fun, And'. The piano accompaniment continues with a similar rhythmic pattern, marked with a piano 'p' dynamic. The system concludes with a final piano accompaniment line.
